Sforza's Castle

Along with the Cathedral - Milan's most famous and much beloved monument - the big Castle is linked to the vicissitudes and dramatic events that the city has been experiencing over the past centuries. The Castle was named after Francesco Sforza, who transformed it into a ducal residence in 1450. But its origins date back to the second half of the 14th century, at the time of Galeazzo II Visconti.

Giovanni Donato Montorfano's Crucifixion

On the wall in front of the Last Supper by Leonardo, there is a remarkable fresco itself, the Crucifixion by Montorfano done in 1495, which is unfortunately obscured by the ungenerous comparison with the Leonardo's masterpiece, actually much more modern and which raised immediately the interest and the emulation by a whole generation of Lombard artists.
